If Cruse Bedfordshire has helped you, then please consider showing your appreciation by making a donation so that we may help others who are struggling with their grief. We rely on voluntary donations and our work would not be possible without the support of clients and the general public.

The difference your gift could make.

£3 could send information leaflets to 6 people helping them to understand their grief and the support available.

£8 could allow one of our Helpline Volunteers to respond to calls for help for one day and provide information, reassurance and hope for the future.

£15 could pay for someone struggling with their grief to take part in a group session and meet other people who understand.

£35 could pay for a face to face session for someone dealing with the loss of their loved one and help them understand and cope with their grief.

P.S. If you'd like to donate a monthly gift, that would be lovely! It is the best way to support us, it means we can plan ahead better. Thank you
